FASHIONS. -Any one who studied the milliners' shops in Paris during the past few months, when the Parisians themselves were absent from the capital, could not help observing how boldly all the fashions of the past spring were obtruded on the public gaze .-Foreigners and provincials, struck with these excesses the Parisian modiste perpetrated. while endeavoring to hit upon some happy invention that should take the citadel of fashion by storm, and which the leaders of ton, to whom they had been submitted, had refused to countenance, secured them as though they were the choice novelties of the season. Hence many a foreign dame, and many an English one, ambitious of following closely in the steps of fashion, will have reason to regret her Paris purchases during the present winter. Par parenthese, one may here remark that it is not the grandes dames, or leaders of tashion, as they are styled, who really introduce the changes in the mode when these are particularly abrupt or striking. This is left to the actresses at the more fashionable theatreswhose toilettes in modern comedies outstrip in a marked degree those of the grand personages they are supposed to represent-to certain classes of women who are allowed large discounts on their purchases, in consideration of their being the means of introducing particular novelties, with the view of rendering the public tamiliar with them, and drawing on the more luke-warm and timid of their sex to follow the example they set. Indeed, it is matter of notoriety than many of the large Parisian houses not only provide ladies of graceful figure and elegant bearing with toilettes with which to exhibit themselves at the afternoon promenade, between the lakes in the Bois de

and shade of color would, unless very striking, fail in attracting any particular attention: several examples, therefore, have to be exhibited at the same time, and the display goes on day by day until a hit is made or failure becomes Talking of the nakedness of tashionable women in London, a correspondent says: "I learn more about human anatomy in five minutes at a West End drawing room than I had acquired before in all my life, but at a sacrifice of all the respect I had hitherto felt for the "It has always struck me as a curious matter

In consequence, he was in a hospital in London for four months, and is now afflicted in his whole system by rheumatism, and has lost the sight of his left eye. Secondly, the conduct of the war on both sides, so far as it affected constitutional principles, with its final results upon the organic structure of the entire system of American democratic free institutions." It had been the writers's intention to embody the whole in one volume, but finding it impossible to do justice to the subject in so small a comportion of it will be embraced in an additional volume to be issued as soon as circumstap ces

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.: Gents-The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had with the gapes. He tried your routerest Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry.

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dresdful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. MARRIAGE. Married Persons, or Young Men comtemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit ex-cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz

Weakness of the Back and Limbs. Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Neryous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil

Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Leve of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emacated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN. Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain se-cret habit. Such persons must, before contem-MARRIAGE, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap-Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp et hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of safe arrival. sole survivor of the yacht John T. Ford, which was capsized in the British Channel, on the voyage from Baltimore to Paris, has returned to this city. He reached Boston some two weeks since, in the steamship Aleppo, but was detained there by sickness, and reached here on Thursday night, in the steamship McClellan, from Boston. Mr. Armstrong was first picked up from the bottom of the yacht on the 23d of August, by the ship Areolite, Capt. Alleyed, and afterwards transferred to the schooner Mary Blake, Capt. Browne, who landed him in London on the 29th. He was in a HOUGH & RAMSAY, dreadfully emaciated condition when rescued, after having undergone the hardships of the
